LEARNING OBJECTIVES - Lecture 14 (Computational complexity and all-pairs shortest paths)

After attending lecture and completing the associated readings, you should be able to:

1. Define the notion of time complexity in theoretical computer science
2. Derive an all-pairs shortest path algorithm and analyze its correctness and complexity
3. Analyze the correctness and complexity of the Floyd-Warshall algorithm